GENERAL BUSINESS

Viv

Has suggested that a reminder call be made prior to committee meetings, Mary Plummer will do this.

Taumarunui trip May 21 – promotional notice required

Centennial club days – suggestion been made to consider holding a small competition on Tauhara when main club day on Centennial. Committee were against this as may encourage more players not to join club day and we wish to encourage more players to improve their game on Centennial. Grant will investigate if a special deal can be provided by James Morgan on carts for the more mature golfers as a means of encouraging them to play on Centennial.

Duty – requested committee to look at when they are likely to be away and make arrangements for replacement or swap well in advance.

Pennants – get underway in March, Grant to follow up with Brenda Keir for information on draws and format.

Lyn Edwards

Opening day held with 26 players including 2 new players. They have adopted nearest the pin must be on the green. Considering a fundraiser to purchase a sculpture for the new garden in driveway.

Presidents Trophy qualifying – error with Tuesday and Saturday ladies on different courses. Grant to amend programme.

Sue Jolly

Away trips – want to encourage more away trips and utilise the minivan available to members through Proshop.

Grant

Twin Classic – Michelle has a friend keen to do team photos, all agreed this was a good idea. Sue Jolly organising drinks & sweets on course. Jenny Ewart & Bev Cook doing the starting on Wednesday, no starters required for Thursday.

NEXT MEETING: Tuesday March 19th at 2.30pm.
