Saturday Ladies Report:

Club Champs semi-final ruling was that games could be played earlier if mutually agreed.

Club Champs Final: due to inclement weather some players played earlier some did not.

Silver was reduced from 36 to 18 holes.

Bronze final was played on Tuesday; there was some discussion about this being unfair as Silver played on Saturday.

Champion of Champions in Kawerau, November 8th, Starting time is 7.45am, agreed that club would provide accommodation for November 7th.

Vets Report:

Several complaints about starting on 7 or 10 when playing Centennial.

Discussion about navigating around to 7 over the bridge and turning left to avoid slipping on hillside. Starters need to know if there are any issues before organizing discs. Are there more gold stickers required? Jenny

Sub-Committees:

- New members: Rose Hume (Tuesday). A number of players have resigned, details in separate email from Grant.
- Friends of the course: Ron Forbes will need volunteers for gardening projects. Tauhara Front 9 will be reinvented as the Thermal 9 and the Back 9 will be the Garden 9. Stunted kanuka will be planted near tees. Sue Murray will coordinate phone list.
- Rules: Congratulations to Carol Paewai and Maggie McCaughan who passed the assignments and examination.

General Business:

1. Uniform: Black jersey too large for women, James Morgan able to order through Sports and Leisure for approximately $65.00. Discount may be available for Club Representatives. Shirt colour to be decided as blue collar doesn't suit black jersey. Sharon
2. Cell phones may be carried on course but only used in an emergency.
3. Card entry: markers enter scores; partners check and supervise for accuracy. Mary to announce on Club Day.
4. Melbourne Cup Day: Taupo Gentlemen's Club has extended an invitation to ladies to enjoy free bubbly and fancy dress. Taupo clubrooms busy with builders and Smiths Sports crowd. Colleen will research possible options for a game and lunch at Wairakei 9 hole or Kinloch International; flyer will be displayed on notice board.
5. Committee for 2011: Viv Nyssen wishes to stand down and Sue Murray will stand down if there is an influx of nominations.
6. End of year prize giving: $600 budget including 'The Shed' vouchers from the club. Sue Jolly and Margery will organise prizes. Entertainment options include a quiz night borrowed from 'The Shed' or 'What not to wear' by Lisa O'Neil – Sharon to follow up. (Top Secret shhhh)
7. Xmas Pairs Tournament – thank you letters to sponsors with free passes - Grant
8. Shoot out – October 19th on Centennial, 30 entrants so far, 9 hole format (2 groups)
9. NZ Golf Senior Women's Handicap Foursomes Tournament opportunity to host, last week in November 2011. 64 foursomes made up of 128 players aged 50+, oldest players have entry priority. Will need starters.
